《George's Marvellous Medicine》

Being a medical expert is one of Roald Dahl's dream where he made it come true in this book. George is an eight years old boy who is being bullied by his grandmother occasionally. Knowing his grandma is a witch, he decided to make a magic potion as revenge. This potion contains over 30 ingredients, such as shampoo, toothpaste, hair remover, sheep dip, which are collected from family farm. Does this potion work? What happen to his grandmother?

《Boy》

As a brilliant writer, Roald Dahl has shown us his creativity, sense of humour, and most importantly, the love-hate relationship between children and adults. "Boy" is an autobiographical book about Roald Dahl, including his childhood, school life, first job, working experience etc. After reading this book, you will understand more about the message in each comedian novels that Roald Dahl tried to deliver, as well as where does the dark thoughts come from. His childhood might sound tragic, but he chose to describe it in a hilarious way and make such personal experience less heavier to read.
